16. It is the school's responsibility to establish the dates for the beginning and end of the school year, to set school recess periods, as well as to schedule the beginning and end of classes, according to the provisions referred to in the official programs.

17. The undersigned hereby declare that they will continue to be the main payers and responsible for the fulfillment of the obligations mentioned in this contract, even if the student reaches the age of adulthood during the execution of this contract. In the event of such an occurrence, they commit themselves to the student's conformity with the present contract.

18. The parents and/or guardians of students assume the obligation to accompany the activities proposed by the school in each of the possible formats with commitment and responsibility, and the different platforms that may be used.
